

COUPLET

A BRIDE OF YESTERDAY.

In London, where he is attending the coronation festival, will come direct to this country after the festivities are over to be the honored guest of the United States. Plans are now being made for a reception in this city in his honor. He will be received at the White House, where a formal dinner will be given in his honor, and there will be many other official functions for him.

Medical Director John C. Boyd, U. S. N., retired, and Mrs. Boyd and Miss Boyd will sail for Europe July 12.

The Austro-Hungarian Ambassador and Baroness Hengelmüller, who are now established at Bar Harbor for the summer, will sail in September for Austria.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. J. H. Upshur, U. S. N., have arrived at Newport, R. I., to spend the summer.

Capt. Samuel H. Gibson, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Gibson and their two daughters will soon go to Capon Springs, W. Va., for the season.

Mrs. Conger and the Misses Conger, mother and sisters of Assistant Paymaster Omar D. Conger, U. S. N., will go to Ogunquit, Me., from Annapolis, to spend the summer.

Mrs. Dudley, widow of Brig. Gen. William Wade Dudley, has taken the Eggleston cottage, Shelton Heights, Long Island, N. Y., for the summer. Her son, Mr. Neil Graham Finch, U. S. A., class of 1911, will spend the summer with her.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. George C. Bannett, U. S. N., have gone to Jamestown, R. I., where they will spend the season.

Capt. B. S. Richard, U. S. N., retired, who has been living at the Toronto, in this city, has gone to Jamestown, R. I., where he has joined his wife for the summer.

Mrs. Robert Boyd has taken a cottage at Freeport, Long Island, where she will be joined by her family for the summer months.

Capt. Andrew C. Wright, U. S. A., has been ordered to Fort Bayard, N. Mex., for observation and treatment. Mrs. Wright and their children are visiting the former's aunt, Mrs. Thomas Buttemiller, in Portland, Ore.

Maj. Theodore Mosher, U. S. A., retired, who lives at the Portland in this city, is now a guest at the Arlington Hotel, Coburg, Ontario.

Pay Director George W. Simpson, U. S. N., who has been seriously ill at his home here, is convalescing slowly and is able to be up for a brief period each day.

Commander Philip Andrews, U. S. N., aid to the Secretary of the Navy, has gone to Atlantic City, where he is a guest at the Hotel Creston. He will remain about a fortnight.

Capt. Albert Gleaves, U. S. N., and Mrs. Gleaves have gone to Jamestown, R. I. Capt. Gleaves is in command of the battleship North Dakota. Mrs. Gleaves and Miss Annie Gleaves will spend the summer at Jamestown.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jefferson Crosby, of Norfolk, Va., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen Cynthia, to Ensign Rufus King, U. S. N.

Lieut. and Mrs. John W. Timmons have returned to Washington from Indianapolis, where they went to attend the wedding of Mrs. Timmons' brother, Mr. Richard Fairbanks. They are at the Richmond temporarily until they can make plans for the summer.

Maj. Gen. R. M. O'Reilly, U. S. N., retired, and Mrs. O'Reilly are in Oswego, N. Y., the former home of Mrs. O'Reilly, where they will spend the summer.

The Military Attache of the Russian Embassy and Baroness Elizabeth de Bode have as their guest Pierre Botkin, who returned to Washington from Lenox yesterday.

Mrs. Brownson, wife of Rear Admiral William H. Brownson, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. William F. Fullam at Newport last week.

The first secretary of the French Embassy, Mr. de Peretti de la Rocca, has gone to Blue Ridge Summit, Pa., to join his family for the summer.

The naval attache of the Japanese Embassy, Commander Hiraga, is spending a few days in Boston.

Dr. Ritter, the Swiss Minister, left Washington yesterday for New York, where he will spend a few days before going West. He will visit in Chicago and Milwaukee, where he will attend the Swiss athletic festival on July 1 and 4. Before returning he will make a trip on the Great Lakes.

Lieut. Samuel H. Gibson, U. S. M. C., retired, Mrs. Gibson and the Misses Gibson will go to Capon Springs, W. Va., for the summer.

Mrs. Curtis, wife of Capt. L. A. Curtis, Twenty-second Infantry, stopped over in Washington en route from Fort

MRS. FREDERICK STURGIS LAURENCE.

Formerly Miss Mary Helen Leece, a well-known singer, of this city, who weds New Yorker.

Sam Houston to Wildwood Crest, N. Y., where she will spend about two months. She was the guest of friends while in the city.

Capt. and Mrs. Dorn have closed their Washington residence and sailed from Philadelphia for England to visit friends. They will later travel on the Continent until the close of the year.

Mrs. Wyeth, wife of Lieut. Col. Marlborough C. Wyeth, U. S. A., and her daughter, Miss Dorothy Wyeth, are guests at the West Point Hotel, West Point, N. Y., where they will remain until the end of June. Cadet Wyeth is a member of the third class at the Academy.

Mrs. Frank, widow of Brig. Gen. Royal T. Frank, U. S. A., and her daughter, Mrs. Martin, widow of Capt. John Martin, U. S. A., and small daughter, will close their home at Chevy Chase the first of next month and go to Monterey, Pa., for the remainder of the summer.

Brig. Gen. William M. Wallace, U. S. A., retired, brother-in-law of Mrs. Frank, will accompany them.

Lieut. Col. W. C. Borden, U. S. A., retired, and Mrs. Borden have closed their Washington residence and gone to their summer home, Latona, on Lake Ontario. They will visit in Murray Bay and Quebec, Canada, and in August Mr. Borden will go to Toronto as the representative of the Crescent Yacht Club at the Canadian-American races of the Lake Yacht Racing Association of Lake Ontario.

Mrs. Middleton Elliott, wife of Surg. M. S. Elliott, U. S. N., and two children are spending the summer at Hotel Hatley, Quebec, Canada.

Chief Engineer Thum Williamson, U. S. N., and Mrs. Williamson have closed their Washington residence last week and have gone to Chevy Chase, Md., for the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. John Edson Bowers, of 87 M street, have moved to Takoma Park, D. C., for permanent residence. Dr. and Mrs. Bowers were married a year ago, the latter being formerly Miss Frances L. Johnson, a well-known young singer.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Lebel and Miss Mamie Lebel, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hodges, have gone on a three week motor trip to Frederick, Harpersburg, Reading, Philadelphia, Atlantic City, Asbury Park, Long Branch, Hartford, Conn., and back again to Atlantic City to remain two weeks.

Mrs. Stinson has returned to her New York home after spending about ten days here. She will sail on July 6 with the Secretary for a trip to Panama and Porto Rico. She is a charmingly cultivated woman, fond of horseback riding and of out-door life in general. She will spend the summer in their beautiful country place, one of the best farms on Long Island, except for their trip South and for a camping trip which she will take late in the summer with the Secretary.

Mrs. Harriet Deady Wilkes, widow of Mr. Gilbert Wilkes, and sister of former Representative Edwin Deady, will sail July 3 for Europe, accompanied by her two sons. They will spend the summer abroad, and the month of August in Switzerland. The month of September they will spend in Venice, and will be joined there by Mr. Deady and his wife. Formerly Miss Marion Thibault, of Detroit. They will also visit the United States (naval) general at Vienna, Mr. Charles Deady, their uncle.

Representative and Mrs. Henry D. Clayton have as their guest at the Arlington the former's niece, Miss Mary Clayton, of Stanford, Ala., and Mrs. Clayton's niece, Mrs. Deady of Kentucky.

Mrs. George Foss, wife of Representative Foss, of Illinois, has returned to her home in Chicago.

Representative William L. Dwyer has returned for a short visit to Chicago.

Miss Amelia Ayres, daughter of Representative Ayres, is a guest of her brother, York City, stopped over last night at the White House last Monday night. She was an interesting guest at the White House, and was very much liked.

Mrs. George Foss, wife of Representative Foss, of Illinois, has returned to her home in Chicago.

Representative William L. Dwyer has returned for a short visit to Chicago.

Miss Amelia Ayres, daughter of Representative Ayres, is a guest of her brother, York City, stopped over last night at the White House last Monday night. She was an interesting guest at the White House, and was very much liked.

Mrs. George Foss, wife of Representative Foss, of Illinois, has returned to her home in Chicago.

Representative William L. Dwyer has returned for a short visit to Chicago.

Miss Amelia Ayres, daughter of Representative Ayres, is a guest of her brother, York City, stopped over last night at the White House last Monday night. She was an interesting guest at the White House, and was very much liked.

perin, Mabel Stoddart, Sara Koenigsberger, Gladys Mayer, Hortense Brylawski, Anna Holland, Belle Schiffman, Dora Schiffman, Edith Schiffman, Verba Adams, Edith Stubbinger, Louise Emmstein, and Mrs. A. Smith.

Mrs. B. Sturstein, who has been in New York for the past few weeks, returned to her home during the week.

Miss Grace Sturstein is summering at Arvergne, Long Island.

Miss Rae Vinberg, of Hyattsville, Md., left for an extended trip to Norfolk, Va., and Wilmington.

Mrs. A. Egmund has returned to her home in Twenty-seventh street after spending the past week in Norfolk, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolfe and daughter, Wilmer, left Washington the past week for England, where they will remain during the summer.

Miss Celia Simons, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. Oppenheimer last week, has returned to her home in Baltimore.

Miss Marion Holprin returned last Monday from New York, where she has been in college.

Mr. Jacob Gans and son, Mr. Walter Gans, of Richmond, Va., were the guests of Mrs. S. W. Gans last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvia Bensinger and son went to Ingleside on Thursday for the entire summer.

Mrs. B. Adler, of Chapel street, left the city for Clarendon, Va., as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Wolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dammon leave Washington the latter part of the month to reside permanently in New York.

CHEVY CHASE.

Among those pupils of the Chevy Chase School who were transferred from the eighth grade to the high school were, George Farrow, Bartlett Richards, Ferdinand Carter, Howard Gottlieb, Gordon and Carroll Lathrop, Paul Murphy, Eleanor Dillenback, Emily Gallinger and Gen. Barstow.

The last meeting of the summer for the Home and School Association of Chevy Chase was held the past week. After all the returns were made of the recent lawn fête, it was found that they had cleared over $140. Ord was appointed chairman of the lunch committee for the school, this being the first graded school to have a lunch room. Another committee was appointed to beautify the grounds around the school and work has already begun with that end in view.

Miss Helen Emery, of Chevy Chase, who has been visiting friends in Rockville, Md., has returned to her home.

Mr. William E. Richardson, who has purchased a house on the south side of Morrison street, will take possession of same with his family at once.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles C. Marbury were the guests of the Chevy Chase Club the past week at the Chevy Chase Club.

Representative and Mrs. Swager Sherley entertained at a tea at the Chevy Chase Club in compliment to the latter's sister, Miss Crittlen.

Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Henderson entertained a number of friends at dinner the past week at the Chevy Chase Club.

Dr. and Mrs. James Dudley Morgan, of Connecticut avenue, were hosts at the Chevy Chase Club the past week.

Dr. and Mrs. John Crayke Simpson entertained at a small dinner the past week at the Chevy Chase Club.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Poole, of Connecticut avenue, entertained at dinner at home the past week Dr. and Mrs. Poole, guests of the Chevy Chase Club.

Dr. Thomas S. Childs, who has resigned from the rectory of All Saints' Episcopal Church, will preach his farewell sermon to-day. A large attendance is expected.

Dr. and Mrs. Monte Griffith, who have been spending some time in Chevy Chase, have gone to East Booth Bay, Me., to spend the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Walsh, of Newlands street, entertained at dinner the past week Dr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Poole, guests of the Chevy Chase Club.

Mrs. Robert E. Burke entertained her Five Hundred Club at the Columbia Country Club the past week. Among the guests were, Mrs. Arthur and Mrs. Aaron Jackson, Mrs. Charles and Mrs. Louis Beyer, Mrs. Edwin Marden, Mrs. John Green, Mrs. William Franklin, Mrs. Ralph D. Quinter, Mrs. C. E. Doyle, and Mrs. Frank F. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Parker, of Newlands street, were hosts at dinner the past week at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. S. Curtis, of West Lenox street, spent the week end at their home.

Mrs. Titian W. Johnson, of Newlands street, who has been visiting in New York City, has returned to her home.

Mr. Ralph P. Barnard, of Grafton street, has returned to his home from New York City, where he has been for some days.

Mr. John E. Lathrop, of McKinley street, who spent the week end in New York City, has returned to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight E. Ryerson, of Northampton street, entertained a number of friends at their home the past week, when they had a porch party.

Miss Margaret Law, of West Irving street, left the past week for the east coast of Maine to spend the summer in Saratoga.

Miss McMill, sister of Mrs. Ralph P. Barnard, has returned to her home from New York City. She expects to leave shortly for the Catskills to spend the summer.

Miss Emery, of Grafton street, is confined to her home with a sprained ankle.

Mrs. A. H. Allen and daughter, Miss Margaret Allen, and son, Dr. Andrew Allen, of Scranton, Pa., will spend the week end with Mr. and Mrs. William T. S. Curtis.

Mr. Samuel W. McMill, of Newlands street, entertained at luncheon the past week Mrs. Berkley Davis and Mrs. Mary Herring.

Miss Mabel Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roberts, of McKinley street, who entertained the Music Study Club of Washington at her home the past week, had assisting her on the program, which was rendered during the evening, Miss Margaret West, Miss Catherine Brooks, Miss Blapham, of New York City, and Miss Ivira Childs.

summer home, when among their party were Dr. and Mrs. James Armistead Emory and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Lathrop, of Chevy Chase.

Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. R. T. Frank, and Mrs. Wallace will spend the summer at the Hine Ridge Summit.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cowles Tucker, former residents of Chevy Chase, have taken their family to spend the summer at Nantuxet Island.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Lathrop, of McKinley street, entertained at dinner the past week in honor of Representative Edward W. Townsend, of New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Lemon, who are several seasons in Chevy Chase, will sail in a few days for Europe, where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Otis D. Sweet, of Grafton street, will have her pupils recital on Tuesday evening. She will have Mrs. Samuel W. McMill assisting her.

Mrs. G. Thomas Dunlop, of North Chevy Chase, entertained at a tea at the Chevy Chase Club the past week.

The Sunday school of All Saints' Episcopal Church had its annual picnic and excursion the past week at Marshall Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Etchelon, of East Lenox street, entertained at dinner the past week at their home.

Andrew J. Cummings and the Misses Cummings entertained a number of friends at their farm in East Chevy Chase the past week.

Miss Eleanor Murray, who spent some time in Chevy Chase, sailed for Europe the past week to spend the summer in travel.

Mrs. Willis D. Hager, mother of Mrs. Adolph A. Hoelling, Jr., of Newlands street, who has been spending the winter in Chevy Chase with her daughter, will leave shortly for her home in Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. William I. Denning are pleasantly situated in their new house, in Oxford street.

Mrs. Brown Davis spent the week-end in Chevy Chase last week.

LAUREL.

Miss Kennedy and Miss Rose, of Baltimore, were guests for the week end of the Misses Crommiller.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crommiller visited relatives in Baltimore during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Stanley attended the commencement exercises at St. John's College, Annapolis, Wednesday.

Rev. Mr. Demond and family, of Washington, have taken Mr. Roger Manning's house in Church street for the summer.

Mrs. Norman Clayton, of Riverdale, is the guest of Mrs. Evans Duval during the week.

Miss Callista McPherson, of Woodville, Md., was the guest of the Misses Marbury last week.

Miss Margaret Knowlton has been visiting friends in Washington.

Miss Susan Edwards, of Washington, is the guest of Miss Edie Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Turner, of Annapolis, are the guests of Miss Laura Stuchfield.

Miss Beattie Catrup visited friends in Laurel during the week on her way to Glenwood, Howard county, where she will spend the summer.

The Misses Goldborough have as their guest their aunt, Mrs. William King, of Baltimore.

Mrs. M. A. Smallwood visited relatives in Baltimore recently.

Mrs. Marion, of Seattle, Wash., is the guest of Mrs. Edie Baldwin.

Miss Agnes Sharratt, of Walbrook, is the guest of Mrs. Clay J. Halverson.

ROCKVILLE.

An interesting marriage was that of Miss Alice Mae Bartig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Bartig, of Rockville, and Rev. Baugen Young Nicholson, pastor of the M. P. Church at Harpers Ferry, W. Va., last Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Anderson, of Poolesville, assisted by Rev. Robert Coe, of Cherrydale. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Della Bartig, and Rev. L. E. Furdum, of Washington, was best man. Prof. Howard Spurrier, of Poolesville, played the organ.

The ceremony was followed by a largely attended reception, after which Rev. and Mrs. Nicholson left for their honeymoon trip.

Several hundred of the people of Rockville and vicinity attended a reception on Wednesday evening, which was given by Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Buck in honor of Mrs. Buck's brother and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. C. Norman Bouie.

Among the out-of-the-county couples married in Rockville during the week were Miss Mary Frances Henry and Mr. Joseph Samuel Burroughs, both of Reisterstown, Md., by Rev. William D. Keene, pastor of the Southern Methodist Church, and Mrs. Evelyn L. Moore and Mr. William Raymond Ferguson, both of Falls Church, Va., by Rev. S. R. White, a retired Baptist minister.

Mr. Leonard L. Nicholson, Jr., was hostess at a tea Tuesday afternoon, given in his home by the guests of the day, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson, Jr., of Washington, who is spending the summer in Rockville.

Miss Anna Lee Poole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Poole, and Mr. William Edmund Freeman, of Washington, and Miss Florence J. Little and Mr. George V. Wright, both of Forest Glen, were married during the week.

Mrs. Samuel J. Kallins and family, of Washington, have removed to their country home near Halpine.

Misses Katherine Hughes, of Hyattsville, spent the week in Rockville as the guest of friends.

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Thompson, of Washington, are in Rockville for a stay of two weeks as guests of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Anderson.

Dr. Robert C. Warfield and son, Leroy Warfield, will sail next week for Europe to spend about two months.

OCEAN GROVE.

Capital City residents are arriving daily at this pretty seaside resort, and on the famous boardwalk one meets many an old acquaintance from the "District," while on the hotel verandas and in the o'clock meetings held daily in the temple and tabernacle can occasionally be seen familiar faces.

Dr. George A. Guttridge, financial secretary of the American University, of Washington, D. C., has joined his family here. They are occupying their cottage on Broadway for the season.

Arthur Borden is spending his vacation of one month at Ocean Grove. He is a government clerk.

Miss Hattie Simmons, of Fifteenth and L streets northwest, has arrived at the Ocean Grove, where she will be entertained by friends on Main avenue for a few weeks.

Mrs. William H. Wharton is registered at the Fountain House, Ocean Grove, for the third consecutive season. Her Washington address is the Stratford.

Dr. and Mrs. J. I. Russell, of Rust Hill, N. C., after a visit to her mother, Mrs. Clinton C. Smoot, in Prince street.

Mrs. Mary Hooff and Miss Louise Hooff gave a porch luncheon at their home on summary road in honor of the bridesmaids of the Randolph-Crawford wedding on Monday. Those present were Miss Beatrice Crawford, Miss Elizabeth Lloyd, of New York; Miss Kathleen Brooks, of Richmond; Miss Kate Houston, of Philadelphia; Miss Sarah Hamilton, of Petersburg; Miss Charlotte Brown, of Philadelphia; Miss Lucy Leasing, of Brazi; Miss Dorothy a niece of the late Admiral Inch. She is registered at the Ashcroft, Surf avenue, for the fifth season.

Mrs. L. P. Hyatt, of Eleventh and H streets northwest, has opened her pretty cottage in Old street for the summer.

Mrs. Charles L. Roach, of 128 Thirtieth street northwest, is recovering from her recent serious illness. Mrs. Roach has been for many years corresponding secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary Society at the National Capital.

Capt. Joseph H. Berchener, of the National Hotel, Washington, arrived at Ocean Grove a week ago and secured entertainment at the Hotel Majestic. This marks Capt. Berchener's thirtieth season at the charming camp meeting resort.

Mrs. M. C. Kane is comfortably lodged in her pretty cottage in Heck avenue for the season. She is accompanied by her daughter, Miss Annie Kane.

Mrs. H. H. Thompson, who spent the winter at the Misses Haines in Washington, has engaged board for the season at the New Ashcroft, Ocean Grove.

Miss Mary Roeman, of 208 Twentieth street northwest, is numbered among the recent arrivals at the Moravian.

Miss H. A. Hunter, enjoying a much needed rest at the seashore, and until August will be entertained at the New Ashcroft, one of the large hostels on Ocean Grove's beach front.

ALEXANDRIA SOCIETY.

Mrs. Robert Pagan, Holt, who has been visiting her father, Col. Arthur Herbert, on Seminary Hill, returned last Friday to her home in Newport News.

Miss Margaret Hoge, of Washington, spent the past week-end with Miss Jean Lloyd Brent.

Mrs. John Marshall Jones and her little son, Master John Marshall Jones, Jr., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shriver, at Union Mills, Md.

Mrs. Thomas Wilson, of "Larchmont," Norfolk, who has been visiting Mrs. John Alexander Brown in South St. Asaph street, is now visiting relatives in Washington.

Miss Elizabeth Lloyd, who has been the guest of Mrs. Gardner Lloyd Booth, returned on Friday to her home in New York City.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Mary Dent Kraft to Mr. William Hunt on Wednesday, June 21, in Rockville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. K. Keene.

A dance was given on Thursday evening at the Elks' Hall by the Episcopal High School.

Mrs. Charles Sterling, of New York, who has been visiting her father, Mr. Edward Dabergeld, at Seminary Hill, has returned home. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Mary Dabergeld.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Mico, of Washington, were the guests of the parents, Dr. and Mrs. Mico, during the past week.

Mr. L. C. Smith has returned from the Hot Springs, Va., where he attended the bankers association.

Miss Virginia Beall Kite, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Mollard Kite, has returned to her home in Somerset, accompanied by Miss Rebecca Kite.

Mrs. George A. Hulsh, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hulsh, returned to her home in Havre, Mont.

Miss Minnie Berwanger and Mrs. Samuel Bendheim have returned from a visit to their sister, Mrs. Henry King, in Baltimore.

Mrs. Clarence Robinson and Mr. William Boswell are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Scott in Winslow, N. J.

Mrs. Keith Carlin has returned from Randolph-Macon College.

Mrs. Lucien Kinsolving, of Brazi, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Angus Crawford, on Seminary Hill.

Mrs. Harry Moran, of Washington, was the guest of relatives in this city during the week.

Miss Dorothy Gatewood, of Washington, is visiting Mr. Archie Hoxton, at the Episcopal High School.

Miss Mary Gibson, of Richmond, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Wallace, on Seminary Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. C. Beverly spent the past week-end with Mrs. Beverly's father, Mr. Robert Beverly, at Broad Run, Va.

Mrs. William Gibson Pendleton, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Nicholas Dawson, on Seminary Hill, returned on Thursday to her home in Eastville, Va.

Mrs. Frank W. Smith spent the past week-end with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Morality, at Lincolnton, Va.

Mrs. Cooper Dawson and her little son, Cooper Dawson, Jr., returned on Saturday from a visit to relatives in Fauquier County.

Miss Clarence Snowden, Miss Edith Snowden, Miss Mary Snowden, Miss Elsie Snowden, and Miss Nancy Lee Tacket